Charles V. Yohe

November 15, 1955 - March 15, 2022

Charles "Chuck" Yohe, 66, of Wickliffe, passed away on March 15, 2022. Chuck is survived by his mother, Charlene A. Yohe; sister, Lynne A. Hoopingarner; and, brother and sister-in-law, David and Donna Yohe. He is the beloved uncle of David (Kenda) Yohe II; Diana (Joseph) Parr; and Kevin P. Hoopingarner. Recently, Chuck became a great-uncle to David E. Yohe III. Chuck was predeceased by his father, Charles L. Yohe and brother-in-law, Kevin J. Hoopingarner.

Though he struggled with many health issues, Chuck was a caring, gentle, thoughtful and considerate man. He never spoke an unkind word and was a model of perseverance. Chuck was interested in everything around him; he loved music, trivia, sports (especially OSU Football), dogs, and most especially, golfing. Chuck's favorite golf achievement was his hole-in-one on the 15th hole at Henry Stambaugh Golf Course.

Chuck was passionate about supporting the deaf community. He attained his goal to graduate with his Associate's Degree in American Sign Language on March 10, 2022. The personnel at LCC, especially Professor Jeanette Brossmann, gave him a most wonderful and personal graduation ceremony at Wickliffe Country Place. He had an outstanding community of support in the members of his second family at LCC, for whom his first family will be forever grateful.
