“ My condolences to all the Kodramaz family. We had fun visiting Uncle Al and Aunt Carrie as kids (ie., the Stokel cousins). Carrie was special and made our lives just a little bit better.

“ What I remember most about Aunt Carrie is that she asked such great questions, and always had something interesting to say. Despite her poor hearing, she was an active listener. Even with Christmas cards, she always found something specific and personal to say. A vibrant woman who was keenly interested in others. Cousins Rick, Bob, Karen and Paul, my deepest sympathy on your loss.
