I just learned about Stash\'s passing because we were out of the country on a cruise. Stash and Frank and I were caddies together at Fairmont Field Club. I also sadly was at the Akron, Ohio calling hours for Stash\'s brother, Wenceslaus. We are all Monongah High graduates.

Please accept my condolences for the loss of yet another sibling.

I was very sorry to hear of Stanley\'s passing. I will miss him very much, Stanley was a kind person you can depend on for a smile,a humorous "light up guy" when you needed it most.There\'s never anything that can be said that will make it better. He is with the LORD now.
GOD BLESS YOU AND YOUR AND YOUR FAMILY!
