“ Many memories of Joe going back to the early 1980's when we played together in the Lakeland Civic Band, and when our paths crossed many times over his career during his school career in Willoughby-Eastlake and Fairport Harbor. He taught me many things, and will be missed by a great many people. Continued blessings and condolences to his good wife and family.

“ Joe was the only principal I ever worked with in my 37 year career as a Speech Language Pathologist that read my reports and thanked me for my work. He spent many hours with our special needs students at Royalview Elementary school in Willoughby-Eastlake school district even holding one boy as he had a seizure. I remember spending time with Joe and other colleagues talking about "the perfect school" brainstorming ideas on how to make education better for all students. He was a remarkable, compassionate educator and leader; truly one of a kind. God's peace Joe. You are missed and loved by many who knew you. Lyn Phoenix-Abbott

“ When I attended Longfellow Elementary, Joe was vice principal of that school. He was not somebody who spent all his time in the office because of his job title. He was a sociable vice principal that always took time to interact with the students. I can remember during recess on nice days that he would come outside and play kickball with the kids. It did not surprise me that after the school shooting at Chardon High School that he was able to guide that program through that difficult time. That shows how dedicated he was to his job. Even though I did not know him for a long time, he was one of the finest school administrators I ever knew. My family and I send our thoughts and prayers to his family.
