“ I’m so thankful to have so many wonderful memories of uncle Joe growing up. He was never my aunts husband he was and always will be my uncle Joe. I remember when I was 5 or younger him and aunt Amy taking me to the beach all the time. Camping trips with the family, Geauga Lake outings, Niagara Falls, bicycle rides, cookouts, family holiday gatherings. I will always cherish these memories with them.

“ I believe my post came out wrong so to clarify what I meant was Uncle Joe was our uncle by marriage but it never felt that way. We didn’t just refer to him as our aunts husband he was our uncle Joe. He was my favorite uncle. ❤️

“ Joe was my best friend

I'm not a good public speaker

So I'll post this here.

He was an extreme example of a 1970s working man

Joe started at a young age through his family working in excavating and construction

Which included operating and repairing almost anything you can imagine

He was incredibly mechanically talented

He had a knack for troubleshooting and repairing everything

Joe had an extremely hard work ethic

In high school Joe entered into a vocational program

Where he learned to rebuild transmissions, he was extremely good at it

He earned a living doing that for a while

After that he ended up working at the country club as assistant greens keeper

When the Metroparks acquired the country club, Joe came along with it

As friends we would tell each other how our day went how things are going in our lives

We would help each other with projects in our homes and vehicles

We would discuss what was going on with our families

Joe would constantly tell me about how proud he was of his kids and grandkids

He was proud of his daughter Carianne for her artistic abilities

Drawing painting designing and decorating and her compassion

Towards animals and children

Cari gave the household pets the attention they needed and helped raise her niece and nephew

Who when younger were just like wild animals

He was proud of his son Jordan for in his youth building bike and scooter jumps in the back yard

Of him learning plants and how to grow and nurture them

Of learning to operate equipment and landscaping

His computer skills and his knowledge of finance

He was extremely proud of his daughter Ashley who worked extremely hard to Accomplish a terrific career

Marrying a great man Andy Morgan

Giving him two terrific Grandkids

Joe and Ashley stayed in contact everyday sometimes 5 times a day

He was proud and amazed of Ashley's accomplishments

Joe was proud of his Son in Law Andy Morgan

If you know how critical Joe could get about things, imagine being his son in law

I know he was always critical of Andy's home renovation projects

And Andy passed the tests

He was proud of his granddaughter Savannah
Joe would always reminisce about Sav in her youth and Romeo their Scottish Terrier chasing each other around the house laughing the whole time
Sav excels in gymnastics and cheer,
She has a Quick wit and sharp computer skills and electronics

He was proud of his grandson Adam and him playing soccer
And then the transition to video gammer during this pandemic
He would say “ Adam doesn’t have a mean bone in his body”
And admired Adam’s kindness towards eveyonre.

Joe deeply loved his wife Amy
He would share with me stories of their early adventures
He loved sitting and laughing and enjoying a meal with Amy’s
Mother Mary He would recount these stories to me at least once a month.

These are the things we would talk about just hanging out or working On a project. I was grateful for his time and friendship.

Joe could not just turn work off when he went home so we would talk about work and how our day went almost every night
He would tell me about people he interacted with at work
Tell me how coworkers and golfers and homeowners were doing
He genuinely cared and it was nice for him to unload what happened each day.

Joe was my best friend and if you got know him he would be your best friend too.
It was a privilege to know him and I’ll will never forget him.
Like us all ... a big part of me is missing now.
RIP Joe

I love you all

“ This is all so true of Joe. I remember on my way to work I would see him at Pine Ridge working outside and I would beep and wave as I was driving by, he would give me a huge smile and a wave back. Joe really was one of the hardest working people I have ever met. Well said Dave “ Joe will always have a special place in my heart. He loved deeply and took care of his family. He was so proud of his children and grandchildren and never hesitated to say so. He worked hard and gave his all. He will be deeply missed. May his kids find comfort in all the memories they have and find peace in knowing that his memory will live on in all the hearts of those who were lucky enough to know him. He was a great husband to my sister and father to my nieces and nephew and he will forever be in my heart. We love you.
