“ I was fortunate many many years ago when he drove a Budweiser truck for Drenik. I worked summers and holidays as a helper through the teamsters union. So sorry and may Joe be blessed. Barry Zuckerman . Los Lunas NM.

“ We are so saddened to hear of Papa Joe's passing and extend our deepest and most heartfelt sympathies to his family and many friends.

We consider ourselves blessed to have known and been touched by this man. We treasure our memories of him and will forever carry the memory of his smile, hearty laugh, sense of humor and passion for his Cleveland Indians in our hearts.

When the Indians win the World Series, we will know he has been pulling some strings up in heaven!

God Bless you, Papa Joe! You will be missed.
