“ I couldn't ask for a kinder, gentler mother-in-law. Rest in peace.

“ I have so many memories popping up in my head right now. Driveway forts with mac n cheese, discovering bathtub crayons (we LAUGHED at Grandpas shocked expression when he thought they were regular crayons), puzzles, stories, homemade pizza and the cooked carrots. Oh man, I lied to her that day and told her the carrots were delicious. She made them for my birthday evveeryyy year, and every year I forced them down. Of all the time we spent with her, I think we got in the car ONE time, because there was truly no need to leave to find entertainment. As we celebrate the kind and loving woman she was, I'll be making homemade pizza and MAYYYBBEEE eating some cooked carrots in her honor. She will be greatly missed! <3

The bathtub crayons! How could I forget that! They sure didn't come off easily though. She did always look for ways for us to have fun.

“ From Henry: Great Grandma was a loving and caring person who I really loved. I am happy she is not in pain, but I will miss her. (Age 9)

“ So many fond memories of Aunt Adrienne and Uncle Marv. Our families in Greater Cleveland—Posch, Gilbert, and Jones—rotated entertaining during holidays. We played Bocce in their backyard on Labor Day and Memorial Day, walked to Euclid High School for fireworks, and kept warm in her living room on Thanksgiving and Christmas. Aunt Adrienne tirelessly kept it all together. She always saw the positive and love in us all.

“ A loving grandma that will be missed. She taught me so much about baking and I will always cherish the memories I have sitting in her living room watching TV with her and drawing, collecting acorns in the yard, and sharing Christmas dinner. May she rest in peace.
