“ Alex- Who will teach me about history, who will direct me in politics, who will school me about market cap. I will miss our talks eternally. Thank you for treating me as an equal, knowing fully I was not.

“ My deepest sympathy to May and the family for your loss. Five decades ago it was my pleasure to work for Alex prior to the Euclid location. How lovely to watch the beautiful video and see that his warm smile never changed. May you find comfort in the wonderful memories you hold. Sincerely, Kathy Gambatese
