

Alice A. Buccilli

September 22, 1936 - February 16, 2025

Alice A. Buccilli, a long-time resident of Eastlake for nearly 70 years, passed away peacefully, leaving a legacy of love and devotion. Born with a natural grace and a warm heart, Alice was happily married to Andrew Buccilli for 53 loving years until his passing in 2008. Together, they were devout members of St. Justin Martyr Parish, embodying their Catholic faith through attendance, charity, and community involvement. Alice was the consummate homemaker whose immaculate household reflected her attention to detail and unstoppable energy.

Alice was a lovable fixture in the lives of many, always ready with a smile and a kind word. Her meticulously beautiful yard was a testament to her passion for gardening, and her exquisite cross-stitch creations were admired by all who knew her. Alice spent many peaceful hours in her gazebo watching the birds and squirrels at her feeders. Her love for history and genealogy fueled the detailed research into her family tree, which she shared with great pride.

Alice leaves behind her beloved daughters, Linda (Richard) Kasunick and Susan (Mark) Klein, who were the lights of her life. She adored her grandchildren, Susan's sons Joseph (Meghan) McLaughlin and Michael (Anna) McLaughlin, and took immense joy in the company of her great-grandchildren, Carter and Maddie.

Other loved ones she leaves behind are brothers John and James Krebs, brother-in-law Joseph Buccilli, sister-in-law Adria Buccilli, sister-in-law Sue Krebs, many cherished nephews, nieces, and all of the wonderful neighbors she often said she was blessed to have had.

Alice's memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew her. Her family, friends, and community will forever cherish the love, wisdom, and joy she brought into their lives.

May she rest in eternal peace.

A celebration mass in her honor will be held on a date to be announced in the near future.

Tribute Wall

“ She was a very special lady who loved her family .

Sue Krebs - February 20, 2025 at 07:40 PM