Alice A. Lamont, a cherished mother, grandmother, and friend, passed away on March 17, 2024, in Mentor, OH. Born in Spangler, PA on September 16, 1933, Alice was a devoted wife to her late husband Patrick Lamont for 50 years, and a loving mother to her children, Debra Sulak (Greg), Karen (David) Stermole, Kathleen Klug (David-deceased), and the late Patrick Jr. (Janet). She will be remembered by her grandchildren James Sulak Jr. (Jackie), Nicole Taylor (Michael), Ashley Inbody (Ryan), Lindsey Sackey (Kwesi), Michael Stermole (Jennifer), David Klug (Jennifer), Holly Mills (Kiel), Anthony Lamont, Tricia Noss (Bud), and Nolan Lamont (Shannon), 14 great-grandchildren, sister-in-law Sandy Sewalish and longtime loving best friend Jerry and her dear friend Avis.

Alice was predeceased by her husband Patrick, son Patrick Jr., son-in-law David Klug, and brothers Chuck and Bobby Sewalish.

Alice was known for her love of dancing, gardening, and enjoying the simple pleasures of life such as shopping and playing the slot machines.

Alice made her mark as a dedicated clerk at Fisher Fazios(Dave's), where her warm smile and kind heart endeared her to all who had the pleasure of knowing her. Her passion for life and contagious enthusiasm brightened the lives of those around her, leaving a lasting impact on her friends, family, and colleagues.

Tribute Wall

“ While I was very, very young at the time, my father Bill, also from Spangler, was friends with both Alice and Pat. We all lived in Euclid early on and the family babysat me. I have fond memories of Alice and family. I am so sorry for your loss of such a special lady!
