“ Amy and I worked together at the heath department. I had a big program during the first week she started in 2022. We quickly developed a rapport and got along well. 2023 was a particularly difficult year for her. She often chatted with me about those challenges incldyng the loss of her dad, spreading her mom's ashes in Niagara Falls and missing her brother. I tried to be a listening ear and a source of optimism and encouragement for her. Her death came as a complete and utter shock. May you all treasure every memory, family gathering, road and air trip as you adjust ro living without the physical presence of your shining light and Soccer Mom. Take comfort from the Word of God which states "blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted.
