“ My Tia Cuca, I will miss our talks so much. We laughed, we cried, and laughed some more. We talked about God, a lot. About being strong, having hope, and that there is nothing to fear with him in your heart. We talked about her childhood, her siblings -9 of them!. Her grandparents, her parents, her daughters and son, her nieces & nephews, her grandchildren, her neighbor Emmy that visited her always with meals, play time for Teddy and many laughs and stories. We talked about her time in New York where I first met her. Then her life in Mentor, Ohio. She was always positive, funny, and so loving to me. I will miss her encouragement, her love, and her support through the good, the bad, and everything in between. Thank you Tia for being such in integral part of my life, you will always be! I love you, Glorita
