“ All of our family sends their love and prayers to all of Sarah's family in the loss of her Grandfather. We only wish that we would of been able to meet him. We know the love he had for all of you will be a legacy not forgotten. May the memories of the times with him comfort you all in this difficult time.

Special condolences to Mrs. Friend--as her loss is great.

*Knowing that one day you all will together again is a glorious gift.
May the peace of God fill you all.*

Our prayers will be with you all.
