“ Barbara will be missed by many who enjoyed her enjoyable, kind personality. As a child care provider for preschool and after school children, she was responsible and loving. She was a great friend to my sister, Nancy. Her love for cats gave us the opportunity to receive an adorable kitten from a litter she rescued. May she rest in the arms of Jesus, our Saviour.

“ Barb Deister was a sunbeam! I originally knew Barb through church at St. Roberts Parish. I hired Barb to work at the Euclid Schools Child Development Center, where she worked for many years. Barb brought laughter & cheerfulness to our building, she was always fun. So creative. Barb was so effective working with Autistic children, a very special gift. She made people feel as special as she was. Barb will be missed by all of us who loved her.
