“ I was very sad to learn of Barb's passing. I knew she was ill Barb and my husband, Bill Anderson, kinda held each others hand through e-mails-Bill died last September and because I had not "heard" from Barb in a few months, I realized things must be nearing the end. Bill thought the world of Barb and through his stories of Preformed and Barb, I came to know her and respect her and enjoy our e-mail friendship. I am so sorry. Please accept my most sincere condolences.

“ Ken and boys, we share in your grief. Barb was separated from us by distance but was always in our thoughts. She was a grand lady and always made me smile often. Quick with wit and with a huge heart, she will always be in a special place in my heart.

“ We will miss Barb's sense of humor and quick wit. She was a mentor,a teacher. When we didn't do things the way she wanted, she would have us flick ourselves in the back of the head.
May she rest in peace and without pain.
