

Barbara Lee Murray

February 7, 1941 - November 9, 2024

Barbara Lee Murray, a beloved and compassionate woman known for her kind-hearted nature and infectious sense of humor, passed away peacefully from natural causes on November 9, 2024, at the age of 83. Born on February 7, 1941, in Cleveland, Ohio, she spent her life spreading joy and laughter to all who knew her.

Barbara's warm and caring spirit touched the lives of many, and she will always be remembered for her love of playing the lottery and scratch-offs, as well as her talent for sewing. Her ability to bring a smile to the faces of those around her was unmatched, and her laughter was a source of light in the lives of all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Barbara was the loving mother of Rudolph Knaus III (Catherine), and the late Karen Willrich, and Victor Knaus; the proud grandmother of Michelle Kravitz (Jason), Michael Willrich, Maria Willrich, Stephanie Knaus, and Stephen Knaus; a great grandmother to many; and a caring sister to Chuck Hull. In addition, she leaves behind her favorite cat, Squeaky. Barbara was also preceded in death by her parents Victor and Ida Hull.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that any donation be made in Barbara's memory to Hospice of the Western Reserve in Cleveland.
