“ We had a love/hate relationship all our lives, but I always loved you more than you could have ever imagined. Being the oldest daughter, I was stubborn and bullheaded which I got from you. But you were also my strength! Because of you I became independent and strong willed and no one was ever going to take away my beliefs or my faith. You made me that way from the time I was a little girl. But, I've never been afraid to admit when I was wrong and the one thing I have and was never afraid to show was that I have a heart. Thank you Mom for making me into the person I am today, for because of you I am who I am today and will never changed that. I held true to my beliefs and I am stronger now than I have ever been; because now I know I can handle anything that is thrown at me and survive. Take care of Ashley for me.
