“ Bob has been in my life since I was 5 yrs old. Him & I always planted sunflowers (I loved seeing how tall they would get) & then on the first day of school he had me stand in front of them for pictures.

Many memories of him loving music. His face would light up when he wanted to dance. We all knew that look. He'd drag me out to the dance floor to dance with him but I could only laugh. I can still see the sparkle in his eyes when Gimmie Three Steps comes on.

He would do anything for us.....
