“ Brian became a friend to Orion, Ezra and Abe in the 1980's when they all spent time at their Grandmas' houses on Titus Avenue in Cleveland. We lived next to Liz and Richard Colon and their precious daughters Celeste and Margaret and I soon got to know what a special friend my sons had in Brian! He grew to be another son to me, and I loved him more with each passing year that I knew him. His spirit was consistantly glowing in everything he did, and toward everyone he touched! I was always so very proud of him and honored to call him my son. My heart will forever have a void, missing his physical presence, but my ANGEL you will ALWAYS BE !!! Watch over all of us, my son! We honor you, and our love will surround you forever!! Mama, Jim and Grandma Jean

“ Brian and I were very close friends from the sixth grade until we graduated from school. I was told when I was very young that you are lucky if you can count your friends on one hand. Brian was one of those friends- in fact we were like bothers. A few years after school I lost contact with Brian and the group of guys we hung out together with- I've always regretted that. I still think about all the good times Brian, Shane L, Jason N, Steve Tplus many others, and I had together. Today I heard news that I was not ready for. I wish I could have reconnected with Brian to tell him how much I appreciated his friendship. He was a great friend then and by reading the other posted messages I know that never changed. You are going to be missed by many people- God bless you.
