“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to each of you.

"If a man die, shall he live again?" asked the man Job long ago. Job 14:14, Perhaps you, too, have wondered about this. How would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved ones was possible right here on earth under the best of conditions?

Well, the Bible makes the promise: "Your dead ones will live. . . . They will rise up." And the Bible also says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it."-Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29.

Our Heavenly Father promises also to wipe away the tears from our eyes and remove all the things including death that cause us so much pain, suffering, and sorrow forever. Revelation 21:1-5

May you continue to find comfort in him.

*With Sympathy
Annette*

“ There is no heart break as deep as the loss of a family member. A life has been taken from us and we know the grief is shared by many.

No sadness can compare with the loss of losing a great person. Brian was loved by so many who knew him, and we will miss him but may God comfort us all in this time of need. He brought so much joy into our hearts and may these memories be carried on as the years go by.

We will miss Brian and so many others will to. He was a very special person in our lives and may his memories live on in our daily lives.
