“ Uncle Burns is one of the few special people we've had the privilege of having as part of our family. Special people are never replaced or forgotten. They maintain a reserved spot in our hearts and mind forever. Uncle Burns owns that reserved spot. It's easy to remember his quiet manner and encouraging smile. As when my mother passed, I hear them say.... "I'm OK and need you to be OK. Don't give up and know that I am thankful for what you gave me and am happy for all the memories we shared."
