

Carol Dambaugh

December 21, 1934 - June 16, 2024

Carol May Patterson Dambaugh (Pokorny), a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother passed away peacefully surrounded by her family on June 16, 2024. She was born on December 21, 1934, to the late Charles and Eva Pokorny.

Carol was a loving wife to her husbands Kenneth Jay Patterson for over 30 years and Robert Dambaugh. She is survived by her children Karen Schaefer (Dr. John F. Schaefer), Kenneth Patterson (Lynda), and Kristyn S. DiMassa, as well as her grandchildren Cameron and Carly Patterson, Scott DiMassa, and Allison and Matthew Schaefer (Kim), and her great-grandchild Dylan Schaefer.

Carol dedicated over 40 years of her life to educating young minds as an elementary school teacher in the Parma City School District. She found immense joy in teaching K-3rd grades and touched countless lives with her passion for education.

In her spare time, Carol was an avid miniaturist and a dedicated member of the National Association of Miniature Enthusiasts. She was an active member of Alpha Chi Omega throughout her long life. She had a passion for collecting various items including antiques, teacher pins, and kitty-themed objects. Carol also found joy in reading and traveling.

A Celebration of Life honoring Carol's memory is planned for July 21, 2024, at 11am on Orchard Beach, Catawba Island. This will be followed by a reception at 12pm at The Crow's Nest Restaurant, Lakeside Marblehead, OH.

As we gather to remember her life, let us celebrate Carol's warmth, kindness, and the love she shared with all who knew her. May her spirit live on in the hearts of those she touched. Rest in peace, Carol. Your memory will forever be a blessing.
