“ Bill:

I am so sorry for your loss, but yet we both can rejoice that she is in a better place - dancing on the streets of gold and getting to see our precious Savior face to face....hold onto that one day you will walk WITH HER on those streets of gold.

Be blessed and know that I am praying for you and the family during this during this time of grief & but yet also rejoicing with you in the celebration of her life. I am so sorry I am not there to give you a hug and attend the celebrations.

“ I will always remember Jeanie as a young woman I thought was so beautiful. I remember her sunbathing in the yard with all that baby oil slicked on and drinking coffee with Mom and other waitresses from the Lodge. I looked up to her and wanted to be just like her someday. I thank Jeanie and Bill for bringing me together with my future husband, setting up our first date - they are the reason we have a beautiful daughter, son in law and grandson!!! Thank you Jeanie and Bill. I love you.
