

Carole Andrus

July 14, 1931 - April 9, 2021

Carole E. Andrus (nee Kozman), age 89, of Willowick, passed away peacefully at her home surrounded by family on April 9, 2021. She was born in Cleveland, Ohio, on July 14, 1931, to the late Ben and Beatrice Kozman and was the sister of the late Ben Kozman, Jr.

Carole is survived by her beloved husband of 70 years, Don Andrus. She was a devoted mother to her three children, Cynthia (Dan) Deighton of Willowick, Karen (Mark) Tollafeld of Kent, and Don (Kathleen) Andrus of Willowick.

She was the loving grandmother of Andrea Deighton, Kevin Deighton, Amy Tollafeld (Luke Carpenter), Jeff (Nicole) Tollafeld, Don, Matthew, and Maggie Andrus; and great-grandmother to Bennett Tollafeld.

Carole was a 64-year resident of Willowick and was employed by the Willoughby-Eastlake Board of Education for 27 years. She took an active role in the Royalview Elementary School PTA, serving as the president for a term. She was also a leader for her daughter's Camp Fire Girl troupe in the 1960s. She enjoyed traveling with her family, especially to Maine and North Carolina. Carole was an avid reader and loved to cook holiday meals for her children and grandchildren.

A short graveside service will be held on Monday, April 19, at 11:00 am at Knollwood Cemetery in Mayfield Heights, with a Celebration of Life open house planned for some time in mid-July. Donations can be made in her honor to The American Lung Association <https://www.lung.org/get-involved/ways-to-give>
