“ Carolyn was the nicest person I've ever met. I met her in elementary school and she will always have an impact on my life. She always made everyone laugh that was around, she cared for others, and she never wanted to see you sad. I know she is in heaven and will be missed by many.

“ I remember a made up language of taps on the wall, because your mom had separated us to keep us from talking. (That worked super well. XD) I remember my partner in crime, and a trip to school, because I wanted my little cousin to be my show and tell, and to have her with me during the day. A zipped coat, because while it didn't work with our story that you "followed" me, I also didn't want you to get cold. Singing Celine Dion at your kitchen table. Knock down, drag out fights as kids, only to be be awake late at night and giggling over the silliest of things. I'll miss you, kid. I'll see you on the flip side.
