

Celia Cirino

December 1, 1927 - July 10, 2021

Celia (Manzie) Cirino, 93, of Willowick, Ohio, passed away Saturday, July 10, 2021, at Continuing Healthcare of Mentor. She was born on December 1, 1927, to the late Mike and Angelina Manzie.

Celia's life started in Little Italy, Cleveland, Ohio. One of 8 children, whose parents came to the United States from Italy. As a child she loved swimming, where she won her "Poly Wog" button at Murray Hill School, and she played basketball at the Alta house... In her teenage years she was one the millions of American women who assisted the war effort by working as a "Rosie the Riveter," by working at Weatherhead assembling aircraft parts. Celia and all of the "Rosies" working in these factories exhibited patriotism by helping their loved ones in the military attain victory. During this time, Celia was able to help her parents pay off their home.

Celia got married and moved to Lake County, Ohio, where she proudly resided for 64 years. She and her husband raised four children. While raising her family, Celia enjoyed cooking, making her famous rigatonis, and always looked for ways to improve her culinary skills. Celia was always saying her Rosary and she loved to read spiritual stories and prayers. She loved her "old" movies and, also remembering the names of the old movie stars. Celia loved to embroider and looked forward to planting spring flowers, especially her favorite, the sunflower. In her spare time, she loved playing poker with the guys!

Celia is survived by her children; Lucille Bosco, Angela Cirino (Mike) Adams,

John (Linda) Cirino, Steve (Darlene) Cirino; her brother Tony (Marilyn) Manzie; and grandson Michael Bosco. She was preceded in death by her husband John Cirino and seven siblings.
