

Charlene Kay McEwen

July 19, 1975 - June 10, 2024

With a heavy heart, we mourn the passing of Charlene Kay Hickman-McEwen, who peacefully departed on June 10, 2024. Born on July 19, 1975, to the late Charles Hickman and Della Hickman. Charlene was a loving soul who shared her life joyfully with her husband Adam McEwen and her cherished children Christopher Hickman (Hope), Shianna Pahner, Jocelyn Pahner, and Kailea Gunn. Charlene was the dearest daughter of Fran Bradek. She is survived by her siblings Crystal Bradek-Patterson (Lynn) and Teressa Baker, along with many nieces and nephews.

Charlene basked in the love and laughter of her family, finding immense happiness in every moment spent with them. She had a passion for roller-skating, finding solace in the freedom it granted her. Her heart overflowed with affection for her cats and dogs, who were not just pets but cherished companions.

As we come together to celebrate Charlene's life, funeral services and ceremonies will be announced in the future. In her memory, let us carry forward the love and compassion she displayed towards all who knew her.

Tribute Wall

DU

“ I'll never forget our belly laughing in the Chinese buffet with my momma and all the kids. Give my momma a hug for me when you see her. ❤️ sending my love to everyone who loved you

Dustin - June 18, 2024 at 05:59 PM