“ Chuck was a great help to me in my early days in the program. I remember a couple of times we went riding motorcycles together when I didn't even know if I would still enjoy riding. Needless to say, we both did. He will certainly be missed by me and thought of fondly. I will always remember his comment about learning to describe himself without any man giving titles. You will be missed, Chick, and thanks for those early rides. Debbie Garrett P.S. I will always treasure the dozen or so coffee cups you used to document my story and my life, they were always insightful.
