“ As our family knows Pappy used duct tape for everything. And NEVER threw anything away! I remember he had grey sneakers and the soles were falling apart, so he wrapped that grey duct tape around the shoes at the toe area. I remember laughing at him. Asking Why? His reply, "What's wrong with them it matches!" After that I would buy him duct tape for Birthday or Christmas presents. I had to make sure he had every color so his fix it jobs always matched.
