“ Chris, I don't know why you popped into my thoughts today but it was wonderful that you did. I miss the time we had together each day was a new beginning to you. A beautiful heart trapped inside a tortured soul. Love you brother, see you on the other side.

“ I remember Chris Dibacco from kindergarten, Mr. Ingram’s 5th grade class, and Mrs. Velotta’s 7th grade English class, and so so so much more...

Chris truly was one of those unforgettable people. There are, really, too many good memories of our brother past and I say that with the utmost love and respect....To be quite honest, if each good memory someone shared with Chris Dibacco was worth $1, there would be enough money to cure the national debt 3 times! To understand how it feels, for there to be a person with all the love one person could contain in his heart...Someone who wanted to share that love, but had what seemed to be too much love to share... This is what I feel it meant to be Chris Dibacco...Our love for you will never die, brother. You are a legend, Chris Dibacco!

Chris meant a lot to a lot of people, and I am proud to be one of them...None of us are saints, but we are all Chris's people! Chris, you will be missed tremendously!!

Love, your brother...Jordan Cain

“ Our deepest sympathies go out to the Dibacco family. Chris was a good man, he will be missed by many. While there are no words that can take away your grief, there is also no way to take away the cherished memories of a loved one.

“ Dear Chris,
You are one of the most kind people I was ever blessed enough to know in my life. I never knew you, as I'm sure anyone else would say, to utter a bad thing about anyone. You had an AMAZING HEART and were able to bring a smile to anyone you meant. We were TRULY BLESSED by GOD with an ANGEL while YOU were with us. Thank you always for all of your kindness, thoughtfulness, and caring of others. We can all stand to learn a great deal about love and compassion for others by you. I will never forget you and will thank God everyday that I was so blessed to know you. I will continue to pray for you, your family, and for the many people who are completely lost and devastated without you. I know you are in Heaven now looking down on all of us. God Bless you and the Beautiful Soul that you are always!!!

“ I will miss you. We had some fun, at work together. It was a blast to play you off as Meladie's faux-daddy. We definitely fooled a few people. It was easy, since somehow she got your "wookie" cry down. I really wish we could have had more memories. You were such a sweet and wonderful person.

“ We extend our deepest sympathy and condolences to the whole DiBacco family. Such a devastating loss. What a unique, loving, caring, kind soul Chris was. We definitely had many good times together, but also have made it through some bad times together. We had many deep conversations about life in general and the curveballs that have been thrown. We both had lost our best friend and our mother. We were both broken from such loss. Chris was a huge support for me while my mother was sick and after she passed away. He knew just what to say. He was very funny and silly most of the other times! I will definitely miss our talks and good times, but will never forget them.

Chris was lost at times. He did make mistakes. But he loved his close friends and family very much, especially his father. He will always be with you and watching over you Mr. DiBacco.

Much love,
Marisa & Randy

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family and friends of Chris. I haven't seen Chris in quite a while, but never forgot him. He always had something silly and funny to say in his facebook posts....and that is what I will remember, his great sense of humor and upbeat attitude no matter how bad his day was. You will be missed Chris...another life taken too soon. May you be at ease now.

“ *Tony:
Everything happens for a reason. You might ask yourself why, that which you are going through has happened to you, but just understand that you are being made strong. Blaming others simply means you are not in total control of your life so you find someone responsible for your failures. Just don't give up in life. If you can't run, walk; if you can't walk, crawl, if you can't crawl, then roll. Just make sure you keep moving in life. Never give up. Take it one step at a time.*”

Christopher:

There are no goodbyes for us. Wherever you are, you will always be in my heart.

“ death is quick it takes no time,
it takes your life and leaves sadness behind,
it wont regret no thoughts of remorse
just takes our loves with rapid force,
creates a gap in all our hearts,
leaves voids and heartbreak rips lives apart,
but not today yes it may have come,
and quickly took away someone
but we have memories of chris with us death cant take that no matter what so rest in peace to our loving friend
you may be gone but this is not the end
