“ I can't look at this picture of you while writing this message without a tears in my eyes. We had such great times living across the street from each other raising our kids. Sitting on the lawn chairs, drinking beers, sometimes mulching the flower beds while the kids played in the yard. Golfing on Sunday mornings, to volleyball during the week, to Tee-ball and wrestling matches and even sitting around the table at your dads talking to your whole family and passing the glass. You always made me feel like part of your family. I will miss you my brother! RIP Chris.
