“ Chuck's family lived 2 doors down from us on Glencoe, when we were new to the neighborhood. He was older than me, but was always friendly. He sometimes joined the neighborhood pickup baseball games at Humphrey's field. My memory of Chuck: one game while we were choosing sides, the Beatles "Love, Love Me Do" came on someone's radio. Not many of the tough guys were into the Beatles, but there was Chuck, completely into the song, dancin' by himself, really groovin, having a great time. Good man. -
