“ Corinne, you made so many laugh and feel welcomed, you definitely had a place in this world. Remembrance of your mom and dad and dear sister Jeannie who I had the pleasure of being called a family member for many years will always remain close in my heart. It saddens me greatly to know that all of you have now passed away but it makes me smile to know that you are all together again. I was there with Jean the evening your Joe came to tell her of your breast cancer - he was so sorrowful and filled with so much grief, I pray for him now that God will give him strength to be at peace with your passing. Andy & I send our deepest sympathy and condolences to your family. Rest in peace, Corinne Sarah Bernhardt.

“ I lost a piece of my heart yesterday. I know I wasn't your granddaughter but I loved and respected you like a grandmother. You were so important to me, you helped me become the woman I am today & you were the true definition of a best friend to my grandma. Thank you for being such a great role model & I am truly blessed to have had you in my life. Not a day will go by that I don't miss you....I love you moreâ¤ï¸
