“ Dear Carolynn, Tom, Kyle and Cody, our hearts breaks for you all. We wish we could be there with you all. Trying to find the words to express our sorrow seems impossible. As i recall our last time all together was aMyles’ graduation party we held at our home in Vermilion in 2009. Courtney was giggling at all the family antics. We will all miss her beautiful heart, her smiles, her art and her love.

I found this poem that I believe Courtney herself would want me to send here.

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me*

*I wish you wouldn't cry
The Way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say*

*I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too*

*When tomorrow starts with out me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand*

*The angel said my place was ready
In heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I Dearly Love*

*But When I walked through Heaven's Gates
I felt so much at home*

*When GOD looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne*

*He said This Is Eternity
And All I promised you
Today for life on earth is done
But Here it starts a new*

*I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And Since each day's the exact same way
There is no longing for the past*

*So When Tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart.
Courtney*

*We love you

“ My most precious memories of our beautiful niece were when she was a little girl and every time we came to visit she was always dressed like a little princess (Thanks to Mom and Dad and her Papa and Nanna Stern.) I always wished we lived closer so I could teach her to model and twirl baton. Little did I know she would grow up to be so much more talented as an artist. She taught me more about art than I could have ever imagined. She always was a little shy at first when we visited since we lived out of state but we could always get her to warm up when we started talking about art. May her memories bring joy and comfort to all our family. And peace and comfort to Carolyn, Tom, Kyle and Cody.

A Child Of Mine

By Edgar Guest

*I will lend you, for a little time,
A child of mine, He said.
For you to love the while she lives,
And mourn for when she's dead.
It may be six or seven years,
Or twenty-two or three.
But will you, till I call her back,
Take care of her for Me?
She'll bring her charms to gladden you,
And should her stay be brief.
You'll have her lovely memories,
As solace for your grief.
I cannot promise she will stay,
Since all from earth return.
But there are lessons taught down there,
I want this child to learn.
I've looked the wide world over,
In search for teachers true.
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes,
I have selected you.
Now will you give her all your love,*

*Nor think the labor vain.
Nor hate me when I come
To take her home again?
I fancied that I heard them say,
'Dear Lord, Thy will be done!'
For all the joys Thy child shall bring,
The risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter her with tenderness,
We'll love her while we may,
And for the happiness we've known,
Forever grateful stay.
But should the angels call for her,
Much sooner than we've planned.
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes,
And try to understand.*
