“ It is very obvious to me that Dina is a very strong, wonderful woman. She and her husband Robert should be so very proud of the beautiful person Daniel was and proud of themselves and the rest of their family Daniels siblings as they have raised such genuinely wonderful children/people and are genuinely such amazing people themselves and have gotten thru this so amazingly strong and inspirationally. The pain will never go away, however, you all still have each other and two other beautiful children who you are going to have a wonderful life with yet to live and have many joyous memories and times together as you get to watch them grow into strong, inspirational adults like yourselves. You will be so proud, as they are likely proud of you now. To try as get through this tragedy, focus on the future and what you have now. As hard as I sounds, don't focus on the past too much, as it will only cause you pain and Daniel wouldn't want that. He's watching over you and is still with you and his spirit is sad when you're in pain. Because he is not there physically doesn't mean he is not with you. His spirit follows the people he loved most in life; his family's and will be there through everything even though you may not see him. I do not have the answers for life but I have seen for myself evidence of an afterlife and I truly believe there is something after we pass. I believe you will be reunited with your sweet son in time. In the meantime, try not to hold onto anger or hate, as those will only bring you down and destroy your spirit/soul. Much love to you from Canada.

“ Robert, Dina, Dominic and Jenna,
I am very sorry you have to go through this tragic loss. I know you must be feeling just so overwhelmed by your sadness. Watching the news and reading online of this horrible tragedy that is so senseless. I know this must feel like a nightmare and you want to be awakened. I know you are receiving so many cards and prayers from so many compassionate people. I know this feeling because i lost my son Corey tragically in 2008. I could not have made it this far if it were not for God, my loving family, Our Lady Help of Christians Catholic church community, friends and co-workers. My prayers are with you as you adjust to your life with Daniel in heaven!
God Bless you all,
Warren

“ I have known Danny since he was a little boy. Danny was always happy, smiling, laughing, and positive. He was they type of kid that could always make you laugh even when he wasn't trying to. He was just naturally funny, and a joy to be around. My nephew and Danny have been friends since they were children. When I first got to know Danny he would get really shy around me. He was confused on what to call to me because my nephews called me Uncle John. Shortly after Danny approached nervously and asked, "Would it be okay if I called you Uncle John?" I laughed and said "of course." From that day on Danny always referred to me as Uncle John, and I have always thought of him as a nephew. Even as Danny got older, I still looked at him as that little boy. He continued to have that genuineness, innocence, and charm. He was such a wonderful individual, and will never be forgotten. I will always love Danny, and think of him every day.

“ I feel so limited to express my most heartfelt sorrow upon your son's untimely death. I wish I had the power to undo it all, and give back the lives that were lost. Because it's a senseless death, the pain is all the more intense. There are other parents who too have lost children. May you find understanding and compassion with others who too suffer loss as you do.

When the world around me suddenly shook*

To change what had happened shortly after he'd wake*

Dropped a pen on the floor, and was out of the way*

If I dropped to my knees and started to pray*

“ We would like to send our prayers and thoughts of comfort to Danny's family and friends. I believe that in this tragedy good will prevail. Though Danny has gone home to be with his savior I believe not only did he touch so many lives while he was living but in his passing he has touched millions more. We pray that God gives your family peace and strength for the difficult days ahead.

“ Words cannot express the pain I feel for you - for your entire family. Even though I don't know you personally, I feel as if you are a part of my family. When I see pictures of Danny, his features are so similar to my own son. I put myself in your shoes, and try to imagine your pain, which I'm sure is 100x more than what most of us are experiencing right now.

Please find strength and comfort as much as you can during this process and lean on as many people as you can. I'm sure your son would want ti that way.

Daniel is your angel now - he will look out for you. Know that he is at peace with our Savior.

“ I heard the interview with Anderson Cooper last night and instinctively knew Daniel's parents were the kind of parents to raise a great son. I didn't need pictures or video to see and understand this. I'm very sorry for your loss. It was needless. I once asked why God allows this to happen and was told by a much wiser person than me that it's people who do it, not God. “ My Prayers and my heart goes out to you. I am so sorry for your loss. May you heal as time goes by.

I was given this poem when my husband passed away in 2009, I always keep this poem in mind and it does help. May you find Peace in knowing that one day you will reunite with your loved one. Daniel Vincent Permertor, May you Rest In Peace with the Lord.

MY DEAREST FRIENDS AND FAMILY

To My dearest friends and family, something I would like to say... but first of all to let you know, I have arrived okay. I am writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above. Here, there's no more tears of sadness, here is just eternal love.

Please do not be unhappy just because I am out of sight. Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night. That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through, God picked me up and hugged me and he said, " I welcome you."

It's good to have you back again, you were missed while you were gone.

As far as your dearest family they'll be here later on. I need you here badly; you're part of my plan. There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man.

God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do. And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you. And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores but to- flight. God and I are close to you....in the middle of the night.

When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving years because you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears. But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain. remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.

*I wish I could tell you all that god has planned.
But if I were to tell you, you would not understand.
But one thing is for certain, through my life on earth is over.
I am closer to you now, then I ever was before.*

*There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills climb, but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.
It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too....
that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.*

*If you can help someone who is in sorrow and pain,
then you can say to God at night....."My day was not in vain."
And now I am contented.....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passes along the way, I made somebody smile.*

*So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low,
just lend a hand and pick him up, as on your way to go.
When you are walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind, I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind.*

And when it's time for you to go.....from that body to be free, remember you're not going.....you're coming here with me.

“ *Mr. and Mrs Parmertor and family
My Sympathies are with your family during this very difficult time. I lost my daughter in 2004,not from a tragic event but it still was rough, parents are not suppose to bury their children. Time is a great healer, i think of her each day, i know when i look up in the clear night sky i can see a bright star looking down on me, and i am sure now there is a bright star looking down on your family. Obviously i did not know Daniel, but from what i saw on the News i could tell he was a good young man. You are in my thoughts and prayers and never forget the good times you had with Daniel. Take Care and be strong for each other

“ To The Parmertor Family:

I am sadden and shocked by this horrific tragedy. My son is 17 and I can't even imagine going through this. We all feel your pain! You all are definitely not alone. This is going to be a long hard struggle. I lost my uncle, grandfather and stepfather all in the same year of 2010. I lost close Marine Corps friends during this war. An unexpected death is probably harder to deal with. Daniel's sudden death was unexpected and should never have happened. I do pray that people pay much closer attention to warning signs of troubled individuals. I think that Ron and I joined the Marine Corps together in 1989 at Parris Island Platoon 1003. It is unfortunate that I have come across him at an extremely difficult time of the family. I just want to offer my condolences and deepest sympathy to your family and the other families that are suffering with you. My thoughts and prayers will be with you all. Semper FI!

We would walk right up to heaven, and bring you back again.

“ We're so sorry for the loss of your dear son. We found this poem in hopes it may ease your sorrow.
It's called, "I Am Not There"
"Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the snow on the mountain's rim, I am the laughter in children's eyes, I am the sand at the water's edge, I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle Autumn rain, When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight, I am the star that shines at night, Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there, I did not die."

“ I am so sorry for your loss. One of my 17 year old friends died in a car accident when we were juniors this is just terrible... Daniel was a handsome young man with amazing eyes and a smile that would light up a whole room with his whole life ahead of him only the good die young my thoughts and prayers are sent out to the Parmertor family god bless and remember that Danny loves you guys just the same as he did Sunday night and that's never going to change and he knows that you guys love him just as much as you did the day he was brought into this world.. Think not of february 27 2012 as his date of death, but as his birthday as a gaurdian angle into the heaven. take care..

“ To Daniel's family and friends, I didn't know Daniel personally but am acquainted with a member of his family. I want to send you sincere condolences over this tragedy. These scriptures are a real comfort to me and I hope to your family as well:

Psalm 46:1-3:

God is for us a refuge and strength, A help that is readily to be found during distresses.

*That is why we shall not fear, though the earth undergo change
And though the mountains totter into the heart of the vast sea;*

Though its waters be boisterous, foam over, Though the mountains rock at its uproar.

~and~

Isaiah 25: 8,9:

*He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord
Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. ... for Jehovah himself has spoken it.*

And in that day one will certainly say: “Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.”

I'm your cousin from the Gamber side and am finding it hard to truly convey the deep sorrow my family feels knowing you are bearing this deep, terrible loss.
I pray that your 'heavy hearts' may find some comfort as you begin to remember and share the special, happy memories that Danny gave each of you.
As you try to comprehend this profound loss, let yourselves cry knowing that each tear is a note of love rising to the heavens.
I also pray that you may find some comfort knowing that you have so many cousins 1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc. who love you, support you, and are crying with you.
Rest in Heaven Dear Danny x❤️x❤️x❤️

“ His Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of him as gone away--
his journey's just begun
life holds so many facets this earth is only one.*

*Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.*

*Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.*

*And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost--
and he was loved so much.*

“ Dear grieving family,

My wife and I are so very sorry for your tremendous loss and just wanted to express our condolences to the entire family. We cannot begin to imagine the great pain and sorrow you are experiencing during this most difficult time.

When we lose someone we love so much, we are left with a very strong desire to see that person again. It's wonderful to know that God has promised we will see our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. John chapter 5 verses 28 and 29 gives this wonderful reassurance: "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." What a marvelous hope!

Once again we wish to express our condolences to the family. And although we cannot erase the pain and sorrow you are feeling, it is our hope that this can give you a small measure of comfort.
