

Darlene V. Selbrede

August 18, 1965 - January 24, 2005

Darlene Valerie Selbrede nee: Hall, 39, died peacefully in her sleep on January 24, 2005. She is survived by her husband, Martin; step-children, Charity, Christian, Cord and Chase; father, George R. Hall, II; mother: Lana M. Bittner nee: Stolar; siblings, Stephen M. Robinson, Albert P. Hall, George R. Carrie Hall III, Charlene M. Dan Woodrow, Elizabeth A. Hall, and Colleen P. Hall; paternal grandmother, Anna V. Hall; nephews, Daniel J. Woodrow Jr., Christian R. Woodrow, and George R. Hall IV; and niece, Lauren Hall.

Darlene was a 1983 graduate of Mentor High School. She was a natural musician and technologist. In her youth, she was an excellent electric guitarist and played in a Rush cover band. In 1987, she graduated Summa Cum Laude from Ohio University with a B.S. in Communication a difficult double major, Audio and Visual, and was a Phi Kappa Theta member.

After graduation, she worked at the Recording Workshop, was credited on a Motorhead album, and was production assistant to director Vladimir Lange on the independent movie "Bridges", created and directed videos for Bechtel Corporation, and later became webmaster at International Remote Imaging Systems in Chatsworth, CA. In late 1998, she started her own business, DVS Webworks. She later became the webmaster for the Chalcedon Foundation, a Christian education institution.

Family suggestions contributions be made to the Darlene Selbrede Memorial Fund, c/o Chalcedon, PO Box 158, Vallecito, CA 95251; or on the internet at www.chalcedon.edu/amember/signup.php.