“Daddy!!! So many things were left unsaid. I try to be strong daddy because I know you don't want me to cry, but what else am I left to do. You were taken to early! I didn't even get to say goodbye and that breaks my heart. You raised us so well, and you'd be so proud of us all! Your son, David, not saying he's my daddy, but he's just like you! He stepped up for me. He's being there for me in the way you can't, physical. I know your still always in our hearts. I wish you were here for real though. I miss you so much more everyday that passes. I'm living my life to try to make you proud. Thats all I want. I want me to be able to look up and say Daddy!!! I did it!!! I'm following my dreams on the path I only learned from you! I'll shed a few tears every so often but I know thats okay. I write about you all the time. I talk to you Daddy! I know you hear me! You're little girl needs you so bad and it sucks living in Ohio without you. Please take care of me and keep those gorgeous blue eyes you share with me, over my decisions. I love you Daddy! Nothing will change that.. I wish you were here!!

Daddy's little Girl!
