“ Nick/Danielle and family, my deepest sympathies for your loss. Dave and I worked together at Progressive in Finance for many years. Over the last decade we got together periodically to relive the past, but in recent years, with declining family health and other matters, we did not get together much. He was a great friend, great person and would do anything for a friend, something I treasured much. I still have fond memories of when you both were born as your birthdays are close to my own two boys birthdays.

I missed working out in his basement on St. Lawrence on Friday nights watching Knight Rider!! LOL, back in the late 80s, yeah we were wild guys!

Know that your father will be fondly remembered by all he came in contact with. Dave was a driving influence to me lifting weights and to this day his drive to lift is still within me as I strive to workout daily.

I am sorry I did not know he was struggling health wise, I feel bad that I could not be there in his last days, but know if either of you need anything you can reach out to me and I will try my best to help.

God Bless you both, and your entire family, that your memories of him will help heal the wound you now have.

In closing, as we often called ourselves. Ver, where ever you are, I hope you at peace I miss you buddy!!!

“Nick and Family: we never met but I knew your dad growing up from grade school at St. Mary Magdalene and on through high school. A great person. Always true to himself and his word. Gone way too soon. Be strong, as he was, and know that many people admired him.
