

Dawna K. Smith-Miheli

July 12, 1947 - June 24, 2024

Dawna K. Smith-Miheli, a dynamic and beloved soul, was born in Butler, PA, on July 12, 1947, to the late Robert and Doris Smith. She peacefully passed away on June 24, 2024.

Dawna's passion for real estate spanned four decades as she skillfully connected people with their dream homes. An avid sports enthusiast, she was a dedicated to the Indians and Captains, cherishing each game day experience. Always on the move and engaging with others, Dawna was adored for her vibrant personality and genuine care for those around her. Her love for her hometown of Butler, PA, ran deep, and her family held a special place in her heart.

In her memory, Dawna leaves behind her loving brother Rayford "Randy" Smith, his wife Sheri, niece Jordyn Smith, and numerous cousins in Butler, PA.

A celebration of Dawna's life will take place on Friday, June 28, 2024, from 3 to 7pm at Monreal Srnick Funeral Home located at 35400 Curtis Blvd, Eastlake, followed by a service at 7pm.

“ So sad to hear of Dawna’s death. We were out of town and couldn’t make the funeral. Dawna had a unique personality. She made everyone laugh, shake their heads and say” No worries that’s just Dawna” She was a very kind soul and will be missed.

“ I am saddened to hear of Dawna's passing. She had a great presence in the real estate industry, and she had lots of friends and fans. She came from an era that valued genuine caring, personal attention and authenticity. A lovely, high-quality person... I'm glad our life paths crossed. God bless you Dawna.
