“ I grew up in the same neighborhood as deanna, and then later we worked together at speedway. She was indeed one of the funniest people ive ever had the priviledge to know, and i am so sorry she was taken from her family so young, I know she will live on through her beautiful boys, whom she loved with all of her being.

“ Dear Howell Family,
I just wanted to say how sorry I was to learn of the passing of Deanna. She was a wonderful person who will truly be missed. May fond memories of times shared as well as the love of family and friends help you through this most difficult time. I have found Eccles. 9:11, John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:3,4 to be especially comforting and I hope you will also. Once again I am sorry for your loss.

“ I will sincerely miss Deanna, as she was a second mother to my son, Joey. I will also miss her face at Speedway! She was always great to listen to about our kids stories!!
