“ *Debbie will be greatly missed -- she touched so many lives -- her dedication, compassion and caring -- As part of the Punderson Conference Committee, we were blessed with her continuing participation and joy. She is in God's loving hands now and has won her battle. Prayers to you, her family, and all who have lost a “ *Debbie made a difference in many people's lives with her positive attitude and her interest in every individual she met. She has been my friend for over 20 years and despite the Ocean between us we always started off where we left. On our last trip to LA she bought 5 hats and dozens of yellow books and we had so much fun together.

I will always hear her throaty laugh and the way she used to say my name. Gone far too early but as she would say gone to see Mom.
From Hamburg Germany - Love you Deb! Thanks for having been in my life. Elisabeth*

“ Mark & family. I send you my deepest condolences during this difficult time. Debbie was a dear friend of mine while we worked together at Lubrizol. Debbie and her mom Margaret lived in the same apt. building on Euclid Ave for one year while Debbie's house in Willoughby was being renovated. I got to know Debbie and her mom well during that year living in the same apt. building. At the time, I was new to Cleveland and Debbie made me feel very welcome. I visited Debbie a year and a half ago and was able to connect with her during her fight with cancer. She always seemed to keep her chin up despite the prognosis. I will miss my friend Debbie and her wonderful spirit. Bill Ruffing - Palm Harbor, FL

“ My heart is saddened to hear that Debbie has been called home. She was a light that guided many. She was a sister in AA with me, and a cancer survivor that brought me hope with my battle with pancreatic cancer. Her bright smile that she would send your way will be sorely missed. I'm sure The ol' timers will get her busy in the big meeting in the sky.

“ my aunt was the greatest, funniest and the most down to earth aunt I know. I have so many memories of my childhood that my brother Jeff, Curt and I shared. I still cannot believe that she is gone. Aunt Debbie, I know you are up in heaven planning your Saturday shopping trip with Grandma which included Marcs and the famous grocery store and catching Grandma up on the family gossip. I love you with all my heart. Hugs and Kisses forever.
