“ It has been exactly 7 years since I have seen you
The day before you passed away
I visited you and as we left you said
I can't believe this is happening to me I still cannot really accept that you are gone and nothing has been the same since

“ Deirdre was my first friend in life. We were born three months apart, lived next door to each other and shared a playpen. I reconnected with Deirdre two years ago through Facebook. She and her family will always have a place in my heart.

“ Deirdre babysat me as a child. She was always making gifts for me - one of my favorite christmas ornaments was a big gold ball with my name spelled out in silver sequins. She made me a beautiful pink vase that still sits on my dresser. So sorry for your loss.
