Dolores Ann Campbell, 90, of Willoughby, passed away peacefully in her sleep on November 29, 2016. She was born in Seattle, Washington on March 17, 1926 to Joseph and Agnes Brunner.

Dee was a successful entrepreneur and retired from her own business, RB Bookkeeping and Secretarial Services. She always kidded that although she may not have graduated college she went to the “school of hard knocks”. Dee recently relocated to Willoughby, Ohio, to be near her daughter, having been a resident of Rancho Bernardo, California since 1970. She was dedicated and devoted to her faith. Dee was an active member of the Rancho Bernardo Community Presbyterian Church, where she was involved as an elder, deacon, treasurer, choir member, and one of the founders of the RBCPC Resale Shops. Dee was also a very active person and game lover. She was an avid golfer and bowler. Dee also enjoyed playing card games such as bridge, but what she really enjoyed was playing cribbage with her family. One of her favorite spots in Ohio was fishing at the end of the dock at Lake Roaming Rock. Dee was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, and friend. She will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

Dee is survived by her children, Dale (Sara) Folkins, Jo Ann (Ralph) Wilson, her grandchildren, Kim, Brian, Jessica, Ben, Bethany, Kelley Jo and Brett. She is also survived by her ten great grandchildren, her daughter in law, Susan Folkins, and her nieces, Nancy Grove and Cheryl Sloan Rees.

Dee was preceded in death by her first husband, Harry Folkins and her second husband, Donald Campbell, her son, Allan Folkins, her siblings, Robert Brunner, and Marge Gootee.
