“ I am so saddened to hear this news. I worked with Diane at Geauga Savings Bank. She was wonderful to work with. Her and I laughed a lot together. We always had fun. She also was always there with a warm hug of comfort if I ever needed it. She was always happy to help me or anyone else at work. She’s an amazing person and a dear friend. She will be deeply missed. Praying for her family and friends.

“ I met Diane through my uncle Greg (her brother). Greg married my aunt Renee. I remember going on vacations to Ohio with Renee and Greg when I was younger and visiting w Diane and her family even staying with them often when we were there. Diane always welcomed me like family. And for that I am grateful. To say that she will be missed is a understatement. My thoughts and prayers go out to her entire family and friends. And Diane may you sleep w the Angels.
