December 6, 1959 - December 8, 2024

Dina R. Cockrell, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend, who left us peacefully on December 8, 2024, at the age of 65. Born on December 6, 1959, in Ashtabula, Ohio, Dina filled her life with love, faith, creativity, and compassion, making a lasting impact on everyone she met.

Dina is survived by her devoted husband, Robert Cockrell, with whom she shared 24 wonderful years of love and partnership. She was a proud mother to Christopher Oliver (Shelly), Holly Rasco (Brian), and Katie Bell (Zachary). Her legacy will continue through her cherished grandchildren: Jordan Bowlin (Chole), Christian Oliver, Nathaniel Oliver, Faith Rasco, and Hope Rasco, as well as her great-granddaughters, Evelyn and Ruby. Dina also leaves behind stepsons Robert and Daniel Cockrell, beloved sisters Carol Robbins (Roger) and Fawn Nagle, and numerous nieces and nephews, all of whom she adored.

Always eager to share her passions and wisdom, Dina was an accomplished writer, having published her book "Walking with Wholeness." She expressed her creativity through poetry, baking, and sewing. A dedicated karate instructor, she empowered countless women by providing them with essential self-defense skills. As a devoted member of Christian Life Church, her faith guided her efforts to help and counsel others in need, reflecting her compassionate spirit.

Dina was preceded in death by her mother, Charlotte (Nick) Best, her father, William Wrisley, and her brothers, William and Eddie Wrisley, as well as her sister, Mona Roerdanz.

Friends and family will gather to celebrate Dina's life on Thursday, December 12, 2024, from 5 PM to 8 PM at Christian Life Church, located at 8250 Garfield Road, Mentor, OH 44060.
