“ Rest in Peace Aunt Delores. I know it will be difficult, as you were always doing something. I will always remember you every time I put my beaded angel on my Christmas tree. You kept everyone in line but always did it out of love. May eternal light shine upon you-

“ Aunt Delores will be sorely missed. The eldest sister who helped keep the family history and make all of our weddings beautiful with her bouquets and arrangements. May she be in Heaven this moment with her family that has gone before her - especially my dad, sister in law, and husband who passed in the last year. May God give us all the strength to get through.
