“ All that is so beautiful and so pure! You have spent this lifetime with such grace, dignity and cheer! Only to await for this very moment in time so as to reach your everlasting happiness and love with "your Roy!" May the petals lead you both towards your everlasting beauty,towards one another and to continue to fire your compassion for one another. May each day feel like spring! I only have one regret today and that is due to the inability to bring my whole family up , and to see Grandma Carr one more time. If Grandma Carr had not been at mom and dad's on 2/9/1989 , then we would have never had such a beautiful family that we now will cherish each day until our time comes. All our Love Linda, Bob, Chad, Zach and Luke

“ My condolences go out to you for your lost. May you find comfort from God's Words at Jeremiah 29:11 were he says he is thinking thoughts of peace towards you and not of calamity to give you a future and a hope. How comforting it is to know that Jehovah God will give you a hope of a better future. This hope is found at John 11:25,26 were Jesus says that those exercising faith who've died will come to life. So you have the wonderful hope of being with your loved one again when she's resurrected back to life. May you keep this blessing soon to come in your heart and reflect on it for comfort, to see more from the Bible about this precious hope contact me via email at:
