“ Don was a good neighbor and a great friend. I was 22 years old when I bought my home on Rokeby in 1978 and Don coached me on all the issues of home ownership and maintenance. Over the years Don and I developed a close friendship; he was more like an older brother.Marge, you have my deepest, heartfelt sympathy and my condolences. The world could use a few more Don Bards. He will be missed. Ed-
