“ *A Hopi Prayer by Mary E. Frye
Slightly changed*

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there.
I do not sleep.*

*I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.*

*When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet white doves in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.*

*Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there,
I did not die.*
