“ Doug was a great man. He was kind, caring, funny, and always willing to help anyone out. He was a great coworker and I will forever cherish the past 2 years I got to know him. I will miss seeing his smiling face in the morning after working all night or listening to his jokes at lunch. I always picked on him for how much he loved his Thunderbird and truck. My last conversation I had in person with him was about his trip to Ashtabula riding ATVs and quads with his friends during Labor Day weekend. Doug will be missed beyond measure. Prayers to his family during this difficult time.
